

LANDMARK CLUB
PRESENTS
CHRISTMAS IN BRANSON
2012

Join your Landmark Club friends on a wonderful Christmas adventure to Branson for the day.

Lunch at Mel's Hard Luck Diner
Branson Area Chamber of Commerce Light Display

"Joseph" at the Sight and Sound Theater
Dinner at Grand Country Buffet

Branson's original home of the singing servers, the 50's style Mel's Hard Luck Diner in Branson serves up an extra helping of live entertainment along with their delicious diner-style dishes. The servers, hosts, cooks, and cashiers at Mel's Hard Luck Diner are accomplished singers, song writers, and musicians who perform in many of the Branson evening shows and two have even appeared on American Idol!

Delight in a fabulous retelling of one of the most beloved biblical tales of all time with a performance of "Joseph" at the beautiful Sight and Sound Theatre. The show truly comes alive for you on the larger-than-life stage with amazing stage performances coupled with live animals, brilliant costumes and stage designs, heart-warming musical scores, choreographed dance numbers, and so much more.

Experience the magic of the season as all of Branson is aglow for the holidays. Branson Area Festival of Lights will delight all. We will journey through a magical one-mile drive along a path illuminated with more than 175 displays.

Dining at Grand Country Buffet is the perfect ending to a perfect Branson day. Slow-roasted, succulent roast and ham is hand carved for you as you fill your plate from the vast selection of five food bars with even more meat choices, fruits, vegetables, salads, fresh baked breads, bakery desserts, ice cream sundae bar and more!
